

1882-040 Chancery Causes: Daniel B. Miles vs. Theresa Miles
Lee Co

Edwards, Turner, Bowman

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

To the Honorable John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia.

Humbly Complaining your Orator Daniel B. Miles would respectfully show unto your Honor that ^{on the 7th of January} ~~about the month of~~ 1877 he entered into with one Theresa Edwards by which she became Theresa Miles and the lawful wife of your Orator.

For some time after their marriage your Orator states that he and his said wife lived happily together and enjoyed all the happiness of wedded bliss, but in the course of time his said wife ceased to love obey & respect your Orator as she has theretofore done, she became ill and cross to your Orator and became enamoured of other persons, and finally became guilty of adultery by having carnal knowledge & intercourse with others than your Orator. Your Orator also states that as soon as he became aware of his said wife's infidelity and his own disgrace he ceased to treat her as his wife and he has never cohabited or associated with her since but has lived entirely away from her.

And in answer to these facts your Orator also alleges that his said wife has within the last twelve months given birth to a child which constitutes a certain and unmistakable piece of evidence of her gross infidelity to your Orator and a living monument of her own dishonor. Your Orator would further show you that within five years before the commencement of this suit the said Mensa Mises has been guilty of adultery & that her adulterous acts were not brought about by his procurement or connivance at by your Orator, but were free and voluntary on her part and against the will of your Orator.
Your Orator states that he and his said wife are residents of Lee County & have been such from their childhood.

Your Orator feels himself aggrieved and he is advised that under the facts of his case the law of the land - he is entitled to relief by a Court of equity from the bond by which he is now bound to his said wife, and to attain that end is the object of this suit

The prayer of your Orator therefore is that the said Theresa Miles be made a party defendant to this bill, and that she be required to answer the same upon oath fully & truly, that upon a hearing of the Cause your Honor will render a decree totally dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between your Orator and his said wife, Theresa Miles, and he further prays for all general & special relief to which he may be entitled. May the Courts wit & seal issue
